

Colchester Castle

trip

By Georgia

On Monday the 9th Oak and Elm went to Colchester castle. First we looked in the museum & I did an I spy trail and then went back to the fireplace for a story and after we did a story tour .

This is a garderobe. Do you know what this is ? It is a toilet for the Lady. I took this on Miss Oliver's camera. It looks very strange. It is just a hole. But different to modern toilet's. They had to push it down with a stick. That's how we got the phrase "getting the wrong end of the stick"!

This is the dungeons. This is where prisoners are put. At Beeston they put prisoners down the well as well as in the prisons.
